La vision du problème des trains trop larges par Rocco Siffredi

A close-up portrait of Rocco Siffredi, a middle-aged man with short brown hair, looking slightly to his right with a faint smile. He is wearing a light blue button-down shirt. The background is dark.

“Il n'y a pas de trains trop larges, il n'y a que des voies trop serrées”

Rocco Siffredi,
chef de projet à la SNCF

A photograph of a modern high-speed train, specifically a TGV, stopped at a train station. The train is white with blue and grey accents. The number "83559" is visible on the front. A woman in a dark coat is walking on the platform to the left. The station building is visible in the background.
